	Approaching (0-10)	Meeting (11-20)	Exceeding (21-30)
Content	Artist does less than what is required.	Artist has appropriate content for the required section. Artist refers to the expectations and writes about the correct prompts.	Artist goes beyond the basic section requirements and expands the information written to give the reader more insight into the artwork and process.
Clarity	Artist's thoughts are unclear and/or confusing.	Artist is clear in what he/she is trying to say, reader can understand the purpose behind the writing easily.	Artist uses the writing to help the reader understand his/her thoughts clearly through word choice and voice.
Connection	Writing is generic and not specific to artwork or artist.	Artist writing is unique to his/her own artwork. They use specific details to connect to the artwork and the process.	Artist relates directly to the specifics of his/her own artwork and process to help the reader understand the uniqueness of his/her work.
Completion	Writing is not complete as a whole, sections were not revised, writing is short and not enough information is provided.	Writing is detailed in thought and length to meet the expectations of each section. First two sections are pre-written and revised.	Writing goes above and beyond section expectations. Transitions are made between sections.

Photos	One or fewer photos are used or all photos show the same progress.	At least 3 photos are used to show different areas of progress in the project.	More than 3 photos are used and specifically referred to in the writing that shows different areas of progress.
